Job Description: Looking for part-time work and flexible hours? Tiger Tutor—a program run by community-based social services agency Chinese Mutual Aid Association—is looking for enthusiastic and dedicated part-time instructors to prepare learners for standardized tests (including the ACT, SAT, PSAT, and CPS’s Selective Enrollment High School exam) and offer additional academic tutoring. Tiger Tutor offers small group classes, private one-on-one tutoring, and individualized consultations for these services. We are a growing social enterprise with an emphasis on creative freedom.

Responsibilities

- Teach small group classes (five students maximum) and private tutoring sessions
- Administer assessments and provide regular student progress reports
- Develop lessons following the Tiger Tutor curricula as well as materials for learners
- Communicate regularly with parents regarding services and student progress
- Regularly update and maintain student files
- Other duties as assigned by supervisors
- Work in-person or virtually as per client preferences

Qualifications

- Graduated with good academic standing and/or an ACT composite score of 30 or SAT composite score of 1500 including writing highly preferred
- Previous teaching or tutoring experience is a plus
- Ability to work a flexible schedule, including evenings and weekends, required
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Ability to work independently
- Excellent time-management skills
- Friendly, patient, helpful, and professional demeanor
- Passionate about Tiger Tutor’s mission and a desire to help learners reach their academic goals

Interested applicants should send their resume and a cover letter to kimberlyc@tigertutor.com for consideration.
